

Refugee and Immigration Legal Service

Citizenship Support

The Refugee and Immigration Legal Service (RAILS) provides support to people who want to pass the citizenship test, through:

Performances

Learn about your rights and responsibilities as citizens through our entertaining theatre performance about life in Australia.

Workshops

Professional training about the citizenship test and ways we can practice our rights and responsibilities as citizens.

Training Packages

Written information and training aids about the Citizenship test.

Phone advice

Phone 3846 3189 ext 225 for advice about the test.

Referral

We can refer you to other agencies that help people with the citizenship test.

Volunteer Citizenship Supporters

You can volunteer to support people to learn about Australia and pass the citizenship test. We can provide study guides, training materials and cross-cultural advice. Become part of the 'Citizenship Crew'. It's a great way to help new refugees and migrants resettle and make our community strong.

CONTACT US

Refugee and Immigration Legal Service
170 Boundary Street
West End, Queensland 4101
Phone: 3846 3189 ext 225
Email: projects@rails.org.au

www.rails.org.au

This program received funding from the Australian Government / Department of Immigration and Citizenship.