Use this information pack if you are an asylum seeker who came to Australia by boat after 13 August 2012 and the Immigration Assessment Authority (IAA) has made a decision to refuse your protection visa application.

GET LEGAL ADVICE FIRST

You can get legal advice on your options by contacting the following organisations:

- Refugee and Immigration Legal Service (RAILS) on 07 3846 9300
- Salvos Legal Humanitarian on 07 3280 8860

Option 1 – Voluntary Departure

If you want to leave Australia, you can:

 Call the International Organisation for Migration (IOM) on 35323815 or 1300 116 986 for confidential information on the Assisted Voluntary Return & Reintegration Program (AVRR)

Option 2 – Judicial Review (going to court)

Judicial review only looks at whether the IAA followed the right legal process in coming to its decision. It doesn't review whether the IAA decision to refuse protection was right or wrong. So IF your judicial review application is successful then your case has to go back again to the IAA. The IAA then has to look at your case, follow the right legal process, and make a new decision on whether you are owed protection by Australia.

If you decide that you want to start a judicial review application, you can:

- Pay a lawyer to file (give to the Court) the application and affidavit OR
- Fill out the forms and file them yourself. This information pack contains the forms you need to apply for this review OR
- Attend Indooroopilly Uniting Church Form-Filling Clinic to get help filling out the forms and filing them.
  - The Indooroopilly Uniting Church Form-Filling Clinic is open on Thursdays and Saturdays from 2-5pm and is located at 74 Station Road, Indooroopilly. You do not need to make an appointment.

You must file the application at the Federal Circuit Court within 35 days from the date of the IAA decision, or apply for an extension of time if you are outside that time.

BE AWARE your bridging visa may end 28 days after you were notified of the IAA decision, so you should apply for judicial review before that deadline. If you do not hold any visa, you may be placed into immigration detention.

After you have lodged a judicial review application, you will need to apply for a new bridging visa. To apply, lodge a completed Form 1008 with a sealed (stamped with the court stamp) copy of your judicial review application to the Department of Home Affairs (DHA). If you are in Queensland, you can email your bridging visa application to the Department: BVEapplication.QLD@homeaffairs.gov.au.

It is important to get legal advice about your bridging visa status if you are unsure.

Legal Costs

If your application is not successful, you will probably have to pay the government thousands of dollars in legal costs. If you don't repay these costs it can have an impact on whether you are ever able to return to Australia.

Option 3 – New protection claim or new information

If you decide to write to the Minister for Home Affairs, please note:

- If eligible, you may write to the Minister to ask to be allowed to make another Protection Visa application.
- This is only an option if you have significant new claims which could not be raised at the time of your first application and which show that you may now be a person to whom Australia owes protection obligations. For more information see:
  https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/Trav/Refu/Mini/ministerial-48b
- There is a very small chance of success with this option and it is not recommended unless your case clearly meets the criteria.

Information Only

All the information in this resource is a general guide only and is not legal advice. See a migration agent/lawyer to get specific legal advice.

JUDICIAL REVIEW APPLICATION FORMS TO BE COMPLETED:

There are three forms that you may need to o	complete. They are contained in this pack.
□ Application – Migration Act	☐ Affidavit (with the annexure sheet)
□ Application for exemption from paying court fees

Application – Migration Act

This is the main form that you must fill out to file your application in the Federal Circuit Court.

- See the example form attached.
- Families need to complete the application by listing all members of the family who applied for protection visas and were refused. If separate initial visa applications were made, a separate Federal Circuit Court form will need to be filed.
- You need to give the court registry one (1) copy of the application. The registry will accept and seal (stamp) this document. Then the registry will return a sealed copy of the application to you. You need to send sealed copies of this document to both the Minister for Home Affairs and to the IAA. This is called service of documents.
- If you need an interpreter at the hearing, you must also say that on your application form.

Affidavit (a statement used in court as evidence)

This is needed to attach a copy of the IAA decision.

- See the example form attached.
- Only one adult in a family group needs to submit the affidavit.
- Attach a copy of the IAA decision to the annexure sheet.
- If you are filing your application more than 35 days after the date of the IAA decision, the affidavit must explain the reason for the delay.
- You will need to sign this document in front of a lawyer or a Justice of the Peace. If you are not in detention, you can drop in to see a Justice of the Peace at the Indooroopilly Uniting Church Form-Filling Clinic at 74 Station Road, Indooroopilly on Thursdays or Saturdays from 2-5pm.
- You need to give the Court one (1) copy of this document.

Application for exemption from paving fees

- Usually you have to pay a fee to file your application in the Court. If you don't have much money you can apply to pay no fees. Apply for the exemption using the financial hardship exemption form for adults and the general exemption form for children. You need to complete a separate form for each person applying for the exemption.
- You need to sign this form in front of a lawyer, Justice of the Peace or officer of the court. If you are not in detention, you can drop in to see a Justice of the Peace at the Indooroopilly Uniting Church Form-Filling Clinic at 74 Station Road, Indooroopilly on Thursdays or Saturdays from 2-5pm.

FILING YOUR FORMS:

- Fax all the signed forms to the Federal Circuit Court in Brisbane on 07 3248 1240, OR
- Deliver them to the front counter at the Federal Circuit Court registry on Level 6 (The Harry Gibbs Commonwealth Law Courts Building, 119 North Quay, Brisbane).
   You can enter the building from Tank Street, OR
- Lodge them online at: http://www.fedcourt.gov.au/online-services/elodgment

Remember the Time Limit

You must file online, fax or deliver your signed forms to the Federal Circuit Court for filing as soon as possible. If you are more than 35 days after the date of the IAA decision your application may be rejected.

IN ADDITION TO THE JUDICIAL REVIEW FORMS:

Requests for information from DHA and IAA

It will help your case if you can get copies of all the information that DHA and IAA considered while deciding your application for protection. Indooroopilly Uniting Church Form-Filling Clinic can help you with this. The two forms and recommended wording are:

To ask for documents from DHA, fill out Form 424A.

This form is available online at: https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/Forms/Documents/424a.pdf

- At Part B, Question 11, you can ask for: In clearly distinguishable, separate electronic folders:
  - 1. All information before the Minister's Delegate in the making of the decision to deny the Applicant a Protection Visa, dated [write date of Department's negative decision].
  - 2. All material given by the Secretary under s 473CB of the Migration Act 1958 to the Immigration Assessment Authority in regards to [write your name], IAA reference: [write IAA case number], Departmental ICSE Client ID: [write your DHA Client ID number].

To ask for documents from IAA, fill out Form 6.

This form is available online at: http://www.iaa.gov.au/IAA/media/IAA/Files/Forms/F6FOI-Request.pdf

At Part 2, you can ask for:
 All material referred to or relied upon by the Immigration Assessment Authority in its decision to affirm the decision on appeal, IAA reference: [write IAA case number], Department ICSE Client ID: [write your DHA Client ID number].

WHAT TO DO ONCE YOU HAVE APPLIED FOR JUDICIAL REVIEW:

1. SEEK LEGAL ASSISTANCE

If you have no money for a lawyer, LawRight or another pro bono lawyer (lawyer who works for free) may be able to help you.

For LawRight, you will need to complete LawRight's application form in hardcopy or online:

- Go to LawRight's website: http://www.lawright.org.au/cms/page.asp?ID=60970 to download the form and submit it, OR
- Contact LawRight on 07 3248 1278 to book an appointment and get help with completing the application form, OR
- Attend Indooroopilly Uniting Church Form-Filling Clinic on Thursdays or Saturdays from 2-5pm (74 Station Road, Indooroopilly) to get help with completing the LawRight application form. You do not need to make an appointment.

If LawRight agrees to help you, LawRight will send you a letter of advice to prepare you for the first court date, and explain how LawRight can help going forward. If you need help understanding the letter, contact LawRight, who can explain their advice with an interpreter if required.

2. ATTEND THE FIRST COURT DATE (DIRECTIONS HEARING):

Once you have filed your application you will receive a first hearing date (called a directions hearing), which you MUST attend. If you do not attend this hearing, your application may be dismissed and you will have to pay any legal costs.

If you are representing yourself at the Federal Circuit Court (you do not have a lawyer to represent you), you may go to the Court 45 minutes before the first hearing to seek help from Salvos Legal Humanitarian. A lawyer from Salvos Legal Humanitarian will be waiting outside the court room. No appointment is needed.

Salvos Legal Humanitarian can:

- provide advice and information on what to expect at the hearing;
- appear as a 'friend of the court' to ask the Court for a longer time to amend the application after the Court Book is received.

3. WHEN YOU RECEIVE THE COURT BOOK:

PROVIDE YOUR LAWYER WITH A COPY OF THE COURT BOOK IMMEDIATELY (preferably in electronic version)

If LawRight is assisting you:

- Email the Court Book to fedadmin@lawright.org.au OR
- Take the Court Book to the LawRight office at Level 6 of the Commonwealth Law Courts at 119 North Quay, Brisbane, between 9am to 5pm, Monday to Friday.

LawRight can be contacted on (07) 3248 1278.

Note: A delay in contacting LawRight may reduce your chance of receiving help and obtaining an extension of time from the Court to file an amended application if required.

Once LawRight receives the Court Book, it can refer your matter to a pro bono panel of barristers for advice on the chance of success. As this can take several weeks, at your first hearing you should request eight to twelve weeks to file an amended application, from the date you receive the Court Book.

If LawRight is unable to find a lawyer to represent you but LawRight thinks your case has a good chance of succeeding, LawRight can continue to help you to self-represent and will try to find a lawyer who can help you at the final hearing. LawRight cannot promise that a referral for an opinion or representation will be successful.

If LawRight does not think your case has a good chance of succeeding in court, LawRight will be unable to help you further, except to help you discontinue (end) the court proceedings.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Legal Assistance

The legal issues concerning the review of migration decisions are complicated. If you have the money to pay a lawyer, that is the best thing to do. Court staff can help you with questions about court forms and the court process, but cannot give you legal advice.

Contacting the Court

You can contact the court registry for information about your case or if you need to give the Court information. You cannot communicate directly with the Judge.

You can contact the registry by calling the interpreter telephone service on 131 450 and asking for an interpreter in your language. Then ask the operator to connect you to the registry on (07) 3248 1100.

It is important that you keep the Court and the Minister of Home Affairs' lawyer advised of your current contact details, as they may need to contact you. If your contact details change, you must advise the Court and the Minister's lawyer in writing as soon as possible by giving them the completed form, 'Notice of Address for Service.'

APPLICATION – Migration Act

- 1. This form is used for commencing a proceeding under s.476 of the Migration Act 1958 (Cth), including where an extension of time is also sought under s.477.
- 2. You must complete address for service details in the footer on page 1. All correspondence concerning the application will be sent to the mailing address inserted and all documents in the proceedings will be deemed to have been served on you if posted to that address. If your address details change, you must file a notice of address for service within seven days, and serve a copy on all other parties; see Rule 6.02.
- 3. Each ground of the application must identify a jurisdictional error by reason of which it is claimed that the migration decision under review is not a 'privative clause decision' within the meaning given by subsection 474 (2) of the Migration Act 1958. Particulars of each ground must be provided which are sufficient to allow the Court to understand how each ground relates to the decision, the reasons for decision, the circumstances of the decision, or the procedures concerned with the making of the decision, as the case may be.
- 4. An application by an offshore entry person should include details of any recommendation of an Independent Protection Assessment Reviewer which is challenged, and should specify the ground/s for contending that the recommendation was not made in accordance with law. It is not necessary to seek an extension of time to challenge a future decision (that is; a decision which has not been made yet but which may follow a report or recommendation).
- 5. The applicant must file one or more affidavits attaching a copy of the decision and any statement of reasons, and including any other evidence relied upon. If an extension of time is sought, the affidavit must include evidence explaining the delay and showing why the applicant considers that it is necessary in the interests of the administration of justice for the Court to grant an extension (see section 477(2) of the Migration Act).
- 6. If the applicant is unable to raise an arguable case for the relief claimed, the application may be dismissed under Rule 44.12 without a final hearing.
- 7. If your application is for an extension of time or other interlocutory, interim or procedural orders in a proceeding which has already commenced, you should use the Application in a Case form.
- 8. Unless the Court orders otherwise, an application and other documents filed with it may not be served less than seven days before the day fixed for the hearing of the application; see Rule 6.19. Service must be by hand, unless the Rules allow otherwise or the Court otherwise orders. The application and other documents may be served by delivering them to the Department of Immigration and Border Protection.
- 9. If you are completing this application by hand and you need more space in any section, attach extra page/s as required.
- 10. Once complete, you need to file the original and a copy of this application for each party to the matter with the court registry. The Court will keep the original and return the sealed copies to you. You will need to serve a copy on the other party or parties and keep a copy for your records.
