SOUL SHOES

ROB LACHOWICZ

	G7 C7
V1	Problems and arguments for a few days.
	G7 C7
	Feeling angry, don't know what to say
	G7 C7
	So I went to the wise one to give me some clues, she said
	'See the problem from the other person's views'. She said
	G7 C7
CHORUS	'Slip into the other soul's shoes'
	G7 C7
	Try to see the problem from the other's point of view
	G7 C7 D7
	'Slip into the other soul's shoes'
	67
V2	G7 Pluck up the courage, try to sort it face to face
	G7 C7
	You've a right to peace and quiet, to enjoy your space
	G7 C7
	Break the ice, say something nice,
	D7
	chat for a while, remember to smile and
CHORUS	Chorus
GHUNUS	Chorus
110	G7 C7
V3	Check if now's a good time, to talk the issue through.
	G7 C7
	Listen to the other, respect they have their view.
	G7 C7
	Be honest about the problem, but use diplomacy
	Don't blame by saving 'you' and 'you' instead use 'I' or 'We'

G7 C7

V4 And focus on the problem, sa

And focus on the problem, say how it makes you feel.

G7 C

Look for any positives and ways to make a deal.

G7 C7

Be open to change, don't block it with your pride.

D7

Breathe in deep and slow, don't just run and hide

INSTRU. G7 – C7 – G7 – C7 – G7 – D7

V5 C7
Stories have so many sides, there's always give and

Stories have so many sides, there's always give and take,

Work on things that can be changed, keep the promises you make.

G7 C7

If talking doesn't work it out, don't worry or be nervous,

D7

there's always a free Mediation service,

ACAPELLA Who can help you safely talk it out and hear each other's views and make sure that your view is understood too.

CLAPPING So you both can decide on where to go from here.

The situation will be clear. You've got to...
