I ABOUT RAILS

The Refugee and Immigration Legal Service (RAILS) is a Community Legal Centre (CLC) based in West End, Brisbane. For over 40 years, RAILS has provided free legal assistance and education in immigration and refugee law. RAILS is the only CLC in Queensland that specialises in this area of law. RAILS provides services throughout the State.

RAILS works predominantly with people who have experienced domestic violence, people who have applied, or need to apply for refugee visas in Australia after fleeing violence in their home countries and with refugees who are sponsoring their family members, often displaced and fleeing situations of danger, to reunite with them in Australia.

We are committed to human rights, access to justice, safety and inclusivity. We work together as a supportive and flexible team, balancing the needs of our clients and our own need as team members for a sustainable, safe and supportive workplace, particularly during the pandemic.

3 POSITION DESCRIPTION

Significant immigration legal needs have arisen from the crisis in Afghanistan. RAILS has been working closely with the community and stakeholders to deliver a response. This response includes:

- a pro bono clinic to assist in the lodgment of offshore humanitarian visa applications for those still offshore,
- advice, discrete assistance and representation in relation to immediate family visa applications (partner, finance, orphan relative, child) sponsored by members of the Queensland Afghan community, and
- representation for evacuees lodging applications for permanent visas here in Australia.

We are looking to bring on board a number of experienced migration lawyers to compliment our existing team. These lawyers will focus on more complex legal matters and/or supervising pro bono clinics. Multiple positions, part time and flexible options are available.

Selection criteria

1. Authorised to practice as a solicitor in Queensland or the ability to immediately gain registration.
2. 2+ years post admission experience in migration law.
3. In-depth knowledge of immigration law and practice, including offshore humanitarian visa applications and family stream visa applications.
4. Ability to advocate effectively on behalf of clients.
5. Ability to work within the casework guidelines of RAILS and to deal with large caseloads.
6. Ability to supervise volunteers and students including pro-bono legal clinics.
7. Ability to work efficiently, as an effective team member and utilise client databases and digital record keeping systems.
8. Understanding of issues facing culturally diverse communities and the ability to work and communicate effectively with people from diverse cultural backgrounds.
9. Demonstrated commitment to human rights and community legal centres (or similar).

4 INCLUSION AND DIVERSITY

RAILS is committed to being a culturally safe and inclusive organisation and has policies in place to create and maintain appropriate work practices and a respectful work environment. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and otherwise culturally and linguistically diverse people (including members of the Afghan community) are encouraged to apply for this role.

Please let us know if you would like us to share our Cultural Safety for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People Policy with you before applying for this role by emailing kylie.mcgrath@rails.org.au.

If you are Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander or otherwise culturally and linguistically diverse and would like to speak to us about the role requirements and your application before applying, please email kylie.mcgrath@rails.org.au.
